

Summer Hymn

(Sommarpsalm)

Music and original Swedish text: Thomas Åberg, 1981

English text adaptation: Carson Cooman, 2012

Arranged for SAB chorus: Bengt-Göran Sköld, 2006

1. Now the sum - mer green - ing greets our land.
2. Birds fly hap - pi - ly in skies a - bove,
3. When dark sad - ness comes and hope seems gone,

S
A

1. Now the sum - mer green - ing greets our land. God gives
2. Birds fly hap - pi - ly in skies a - bove, Soar - ing,
3. When dark sad - ness comes and hope seems gone, Do not

B

5
God gives life to all the world with his own hand.
Soar - ing, man - i - fest - ing signs of God's great love.
Do not keep your soul locked up with cur - tains drawn.

life to all the world with his own hand.
man - i - fest - ing signs of God's great love.
keep your soul locked up with cur - tains drawn.

9
See His signs through-out the trees and fields:
Green - ing trees speak like a voice pro - found:
Let it run un - der the sum - mer sun,

13
All the earth its full - est, rich - est boun - ty yields.
God has shown Him - self in ev - ery sight and sound.
Giv - ing thanks to God for all that He has done!